JACKSONVILLE MAN INDICTED ON FEDERAL CHILD PORNOGRAPHY CHARGES

Jacksonville, Florida - United States Attorney A. Brian Albritton announced today that Quentin Glenn Hodge (age 27, of Jacksonville) has been indicted by a federal grand jury on three counts of accessing child pornography over the internet with the intent to view the images. For each count, he faces a maximum penalty of 30 years in federal prison. His trial is scheduled for February 1, 2010 before United States District Judge Marcia Morales Howard.

This case was investigated by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Immigration and Customs Enforcement, and the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office. It is being prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney D. Rodney Brown.

This case was brought as part of Project Safe Childhood, a nationwide initiative launched in May 2006 by the Department of Justice to combat the growing epidemic of child sexual exploitation and abuse. Led by United States Attorneys' Offices and the Criminal Division's Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section (CEOS), Project Safe Childhood marshals federal, state, and local resources to better locate, apprehend, and prosecute individuals who exploit children via the Internet, and to identify and rescue victims.
